

Procedures to follow when enrolling as a member of the MGC:

- 1) To fill in an application form available at the seat of the MGC at the administrative block.
- 2) Applicant must be sponsored by 2 (two) members who have at least 2 (two) years membership and who have not sponsored any new member during the past 6 calendar months.
- 3) Application duly filled should be submitted to the administration office together with 2 passport photos and payment, either by cash or cheque, at the prevailing entrance fee applicable which includes 2 months temporary subscription fee and government tax.
- 4) At the next Executive Committee meeting, provided that your application is approved, you will be called for an Induction Meeting. A letter will be addressed to you and you need to be accompanied by either one or both sponsors on that day.

Following the induction meeting you may open an account at the cashier office the next working day in order to make use of the club's facilities. It is recommended that you make a deposit of Rs. 2,000 into your account to activate it. A temporary membership card will be issued to you for ease of identification since you are new to our staff members.

- 5) Subsequent to the Induction Meeting, your application form will be displayed on our board at the club's entrance for approval by other members and until such time when you have sufficient signatories supporting your application, you will then be called for a Formal Meeting to either confirm or withdrawn your application to become a member.

Note: If you fail to attend two consecutive Formal Meetings, your temporary membership will be terminated without future notice.*

- 6) No refund in respect of entrance fee will be considered once you have been confirmed as a new member at the formal meeting.
- 7) Once you become a member of the MGC, you are requested to abide by the rules and regulations governing the good running of the club.

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

Corporate membership application form is obtainable upon request at the administrative block of the club.

The same basic conditions apply as to individual application with the difference that the rate applicable differs with the entitlement of two nominees at any point of time. The two nominees may be replaced by any two others at any time provided a nominal fee is paid for the alteration.

Temporary Membership

Temporary members must open an account with the club by making a deposit of Rs. 20,000. On approval of Temporary Membership, the member shall be obliged to effect a deposit as stipulated in the Bye-Laws to cover the monthly billings of the Club and arrange to replenish the account based on the monthly statement of the club within 15 days from the date of the monthly statement.

For any further information, you are requested to contact Miss Treesha / Usha in our administration department.
